

DEMOCRATS DON'T WANT BIG FUND

Girard Says He Will Be "Thankful To Get a Million"

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—While the democratic national finance committee is not limiting the size of campaign contributions from a single individual, a two million dollar total would be sufficient for the democratic national campaign, James W. Girard, former ambassador to Germany, and chairman of the committee testified today before the senate campaign investigating committee.

Mr. Girard was the first witness called at the re-opening of the inquiry here today.

"Are you limiting the amount of funds you will take from a single individual?" asked Senator Kenyon.

"No."

"Take any amount you can get?"

"Any amount I can."

Asked for names of persons in other states assisting the national finance committee, Girard produced a bulky package of papers.

"They are to raise all the money they can get in the state?" Kenyon asked.

"Yes."

"Would you take fifteen million dollars if you could get it?"

"No that would be too large. So great a sum would shock the public conscience and insure the defeat of the party."

Mr. Girard added that he had raised $125,000 so far and declared that a two million dollar total would be enough for the democratic national campaign, and that he would be "thankful to get a million."

WHY PRESENT PRICES ARE UNUSUALLY HIGH

CHICAGO—The war department has placed on sale another of the "war cities" which it established and developed at tremendous cost and which, almost invariably, contributed not a pound of ammunition or equipment of the war until after the armistice was signed. This time it is Old Hickory, a vast community built to accommodate 20,000 employees, in the vicinity of Jackson, Tenn. In seeking to dispose of this great plant the war department advertised extensively, and Representative Good of Iowa, chairman of the house committee on appropriations, has called attention to the following paragraph in one of these advertisements:

"Scattered over the plant in the various storages and warehouses are quantities of unused surplus materials and equipment never installed which are in great demand, and having a high market value today."

Mr. Good points out that this quantity of surplus material and equipment has been permitted to lie idle for more than a year and a half, despite the fact, as stated in the war department's advertisement, it has been in great demand.

WHAT THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS HAS DONE

The present Council of the League of Nations consists of representatives of Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan among the great powers, and Belgium, Brazil, Greece and Spain from the smaller powers. The vacant place is that not yet filled by Uncle Sam.

Here are some of the many important things the council has done:

- 1.—Appointed a committee now fixing the boundaries of the Saar Basin.
- 2.—Named the governing commission for the Saar Basin and this body of men are now ruling the Saar region under supervision of the League of Nations.
- 3.—Appointed a high commission of the free city of Danzig.
- 4.—Named a committee of ten famous international jurists, including Elihu Root of America, to draft a plan for an international court of justice.
- 5.—International health conference prepared plans for a permanent health organization, under the League of Nations, and proposed measures to combat typhus.
- 6.—Transit commission prepared proposals for establishment of a permanent body to carry out the League of Nations' tasks of maintaining freedom of communication by rail and river.
- 7.—Summoned a conference of world-famous financiers and economists to take up the present serious international financial situation.
- 8.—Dr. F. Nansen, the eminent explorer, has accepted the task for the League of Nations of looking after the repatriation of these prisoners of war who still remain in Russia and Siberia.
- 9.—Asked all countries represented on the council to nominate one military, one naval and one air representative to advise the council on their specialties, to advise on general reduction of armaments, and to control private manufacture and export of munitions and arms.
- 10.—It has named a secretary-general and appointed a staff of experts who are collecting and collating information for the use of the League of Nations. A secretariat has been temporarily established in London, but will eventually be moved to Geneva, which is to be the permanent seat of the League of Nations.

No Shipping Loss Reported As Force of Storm Diminishes

By the Associated Press
NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 22.—After dropping last night to twenty-nine and fifty-two hundredths, the barometer was rising steadily this morning and the wind which reached the maximum velocity of 48 miles had dropped to 18 miles an hour.

No loss of shipping has thus far been reported here. Traffic on the Louisville and Nashville railroads, however, was at a standstill, one bridge having been washed out near here, while the tracks were reported under water at several points.

Trees were uprooted, windows broken and signs blown down by the wind here. One unidentified man was killed by a falling power wire. Considerable damage from high winds and tides was reported from coast points east of here. The wind at Bay St. Louis and Chef Menteur was estimated at 60 miles an hour during the night.

Trains Delayed by Storm
By the Associated Press
NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 22.—With wires down between here and points along the gulf coast to the west, weather bureau officials were experiencing extreme difficulty in obtaining information from the section where the storm passed inland.

Southern Pacific railroad officials said their trains from that section were being greatly delayed because of high water and destruction of telegraph wires. Anxiety was expressed here for sugar and rice crops. Indications were today that fishing villages along the coast figured in last night's storm in a series of gales and did not experience the full force of the main disturbance.

MOBILE, Sept. 22.—The gulf coast between Mobile and New Orleans suffered only slight damage during the storm last night, according to information received here today over wires of the Louisville & Nashville railway.

WON'T LET SOCIALISTS SIT IN LEGISLATURE

By the Associated Press
ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 22.—Five assembly seats to which socialists have been elected at special elections last week to fill vacancies caused by their own expulsion last April, when the entire socialist delegation was denied the right to sit in the lower house of the state legislature, were again vacant today.

After five hours of debate during which the socialist members were allowed to present their views, the assembly last night seated August Classens of Manhattan, Louis Waldman and Charles Solomon of Kings for the second time.

The assembly, however, reversed itself on the roll call to oust Samuel Orr and Samuel DeWitt of the Bronx, who with Classens, Waldman and Solomon, were ousted last spring. Orr and DeWitt, however, immediately resigned, declaring they could not sit "with such an un-American body."

In a game characterized by spectacular fielding Ada captured the last of the series from Oilton Tuesday afternoon. It was as snappy a game as was ever played on the Ada grounds. Ada has a ball team that should be encouraged by better crowds. They play ball.

The features of Tuesday's game were the clever fielding of Strain, Lindemore and Conley. Dale of the visitors pitched a wonderful game but lacked the support that Ramsey received.

PRICE OF MEN'S CLOTHES SLATED FOR BIG DROP

By the Associated Press
CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Men's clothing is slated for a drop of 33 1-3 per cent in price, according to Fred Vollard of Topeka, Kan., national director of publicity of the Retail Clothiers association of America, in session here. In some instances, he says, the slashing of woolen prices will be even greater.

"The spring styles will be 100 per cent logical," he said. "Suits that are now $65 may be had then for less than $40. Those that bring $70 will be sold for $50 and the $120 suit of today can be bought for $75."

GOV. ROBERTSON SAYS HE'S COMING

Talks to the News and Confirms Appointment For Visit Here

Gov. J. B. A. Robinson talked to the News by telephone this afternoon and reassured us that he would be here for a visit tomorrow and would speak at the normal school at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The governor will arrive on the south bound Katy train at 11:19 and will depart over the same route at 4:34. He will be met at the train by a reception committee from the Lions Club composed of Marvin Brown, Orel Busby and Bob Duncan, and escorted to the Harris Hotel where the Lions Club will immediately serve luncheon in his honor.

An informal reception will be held in the parlors of the Harris following the luncheon, at which all citizens who wish to meet the governor are cordially invited. He will then go to the normal where he will deliver an address at 2 o'clock.

Governor Robertson is a staunch friend of the East Central State normal and for some time the News has endeavored to get him to pay the school a visit, and this is his mission at this time.

The governor requested the News to make it plain that his visit was a social one and that it had no political significance whatever. For that reason it is desired that all citizens, irrespective of party affiliations, be present at the normal at 2 o'clock, hear the address and shake hands.

It might also be well to add that the ladies are especially invited to hear the address and meet "our" governor. The desire is to forget sex, creed and party for the time being and all turn out to show appreciation of the governor's visit.

Fear that the cotton market, already unsettled because of heavy cancellations of orders, might reach a condition similar to that which has forced the closing out of the company's woolen department, is given as the reason for the reduction.

PREDICT VICTORY FOR DEMOCRATS

Over 200 Democrats Attend State Conference At Oklahoma City

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 22.—Predictions of victory and detailed plans for intensive organizations preparatory to the most vigorous political campaign in the history of the state featured the speeches here today at a conference of over 200 democratic men and women from every section of Oklahoma, called by Cam Campbell, chairman of the state democratic campaign committee. Prominent candidates on the ticket, county chairmen and leaders from practically every one of the 77 counties were present. Among the speakers were Representative Scott Ferris, candidate for the United States senate, Representative Charles Carter and M. B. Howard, candidates for re-election, Senator Elmer Thomas, candidate for congress, Z. A. Harris, candidate for congress, and many others.

The democrats of the state are lining up solidly behind the entire state ticket, was best testified to by the enthusiastic speeches of Hon. George C. Crump of Holdenville, Senator Eugene Kerr of Muskogee, who was chairman of the meeting, and Mrs. W. T. S. Hunt of this city who were leaders in the primary campaign for Senator Gore. "I cannot understand this talk of dissension," Mr. Crump said, "I cannot understand why you should even pay attention to the frantic efforts of a small group who for ulterior motives are endeavoring to create the impression that there is a split in the party. In the primary we made a good fight. We lost. That ends it. We keep the faith with our party, its principles and its candidates," he concluded amid cheers.

Describing what she termed an insidious and contemptible effort to disorganize the democrats, Mrs. Hunt declared that shortly after the primary a prominent republican called her on the telephone and endeavored to influence her to bolt the ticket. "He asked me what the Gore democrats were going to do. I told him there were no Gore democrats, that our primary was our fight and that we were not Wilson democrats, or Ferris democrats, but were democrats, because we believed in the fundamental principles of the party. I told him there were no hyphens in our party; that the republicans had a monopoly on them."

Another indication of the trend of democratic sentiment was the announcement that one of Senator Gore's managers, Hon. A. R. Garrett of Mangum, had volunteered to fill Ferris' speaking engagements for today, which the candidate had been forced to cancel in order to attend the conference. As the result of the conference a host of speakers will go into every county of the state with a solidarity of purpose that it was admitted has been lacking in the democratic campaign because of over-confidence.

The next six weeks remaining before the November election must contain unending democratic activity was the feeling of each. "In the final analysis the results depend on the men in the field," said Cam Campbell. "We will do everything in our power to assist in every way possible. But our work we must organize in the state to get out the vote."

THERE isn't any "country" any more. The automobile has brought the most remote settlement almost as close to the center of things as the next county was in the old days.

To hear some tire dealers talk you might think that nobody knew anything about tires except the fellow from Broadway.

That's not the basis we go on.

We give every man credit for knowing what he is spending his money on, whether he drives up here in his small car from ten miles out in the country or is passing through from the capital in his limousine.

That's one thing we like about U. S. Tires.

They make no distinction between the small car owner and the owner of the biggest car in the country.

It's all the same to them. So long as a man owns an automobile—large or small—he's entitled to the very best tire they can give him.

Quality has always been the outstanding feature of U. S. Tires. There's no limit on the U. S. guarantee. All U. S. Tires are guaranteed for the life of the tire.

We have given a lot of thought to this tire proposition. There is some advantage in being the representative of the oldest and largest rubber concern in the world.

Drop in the next time you're down this way and let us tell you some interesting facts about tires.

AND HE came in.
KIND OF slow.
AND UNCERTAIN like.
AND LOOKED at me.
KIND OF expectantly.
AND I stopped writing.
AND SAID: "Well!"
JUST LIKE that.
AND HE smiled.
AND I forgot to mention it.
BUT HE was about 6ft. tall.
AND I believe.
HE WAS from Roff.
BUT THAT doesn't matter.
AND HE stood there.
AND I asked him.
WHAT HE wanted.
AND FINALLY he said.
HE WANTED to put an ad.
IN THE paper.
AND IT was getting late.
BUT I grabbed a pencil.
AND TOLD him to go ahead.
AND HE started in:
"LOST ONE dawg."

AND I wrote that down.
AND SAID "YES."
KIND OF encouraging like.
AND HE cleared his throat.
AND STARTED again.
"LOST ONE dawg."
AND I said "I."
THAT I had that.
AND HE sat down.
AND CROSSED his legs.
AND A thoughtful expression.
SETTLED ON his face.
AND I could see.
THAT HIS thoughts.
WERE BEGINNING to work.
AND I grew encouraged.
AND HE coughed.
AND OPENED his mouth:
AND SPOKE up and said:
"LOST ONE dawg."
AND I groaned.
AND FINALLY told him.
IT WAS too late.
TO GET his ad in the paper.
AND TO come back tomorrow.
AND HE seemed satisfied.

FARMERS TOLD NOT TO SELL WHEAT HASTILY

Warning to farmers against selling their wheat hastily at a price below the cost of production was issued in letters sent yesterday by J. A. Whitehurst, president of the state board of agriculture. Production of wheat in the United States this year is estimated to be 171,000,000 bushels less than last year, and there is large scale reduction in many other wheat-growing countries, Whitehurst said.
He advised farmers to thresh their wheat, store it in bins and insure it against loss while waiting for better prices.
Discussing wheat conditions, Whitehurst said:

NERVOUS PROSTRATION

Mrs. J. Christman Proved That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a Remedy for this Trouble.

Binghamton, N. Y.—"I was in a very nervous condition for over a year, my mind was gloomy, could see no light on anything, could not work and could not have anyone to see me. Doctor's medicine did not help me and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended. I took it and am now well. I recommend it to all afflicted with nervous prostration."—Mrs. J. CHRISTMAN, 193 Oak Street, Binghamton, New York.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from nervous prostration, displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion and dizziness. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

some localities. The production is estimated at somewhat more than 300,000,000, making the yield for North America 60,000,000 bushels less than the average during the war years.
"The northern Africa wheat crop is estimated as 32 percent below the average of the five war years. Estimates are not available from other countries, but the condition of wheat in Europe is reported good. Plentiful rains in Australia point to a good seed bed for the next crop. Conditions in British India were so unfavorable that wheat exports were not being permitted. Shipments of wheat from Argentina were continuing."

FORD CARS GO BACK TO OLDEN-DAY PRICES

DETROIT, Sept. 21.—The re-establishment of pre-war prices on all products of the Ford Motor company, effective immediately, was announced today by Henry Ford. The price reduction ranges from approximately 14 per cent on motor trucks to 31 per cent on small automobiles.

We have started drilling for oil in SW 1/4 of SE 1/4, Section 16, North, 5 East, near the old "Buckhorn" location, where we hope to open up a new oil field for Ada and Pontotoc County.

We have not asked anybody to buy stock, or help us to drill this well. On the other hand we are going to offer you a chance to make some money on surrounding acreage. It is hardly necessary to remind you what this acreage will be worth, if we get an oil well. One hundred dollars invested at present prices might make you all the Christmas money you want, while if we fail to get a well, your loss will be as nothing compared to ours.

TELL IT TO THE KAISER

Theodore Roosevelt fills is displeased. He is very much displeased. He is so excessively displeased that he came half way across the continent to tell a Tulsa audience Wednesday night that the Democratic administration has been the most tremendous failure in all history. He was speaking specifically of American participation in the world war and America's prosecution of that war. His verdict is that the world failure should be written on the uniform worn by every American soldier and should star the white cross of every soldier who rests beneath the lilies in France.

The world will not accept young Theodore's verdict. While vulgar partisans may cheer the spleen of an overzealous politician the world will not indorse the bitter epithets applied by Roosevelt to a victorious nation. The nations of the earth have long since accepted America's preparation for and participation in the world's Armageddon as the supreme marvel of modern times. The people of the earth will not reverse a settled judgment to gratify the ambition of the facetious or to further their campaign to kill the pride of the American nation in the heroism of the American soldier.

The war was not a failure. Its success is attested by German wreckage that marks the broken line of Hindenburg from the forest of Lorraine to the beaches of Nieuport. It is shown in the flags of the Allies that float in triumph from the towers of Ehrenbreitstein, Pomeranian and Prussian guards, Hanoverian and the troops of Brandenburg jointly proclaim the unexampled success of the khaki legions who entered the maelstrom of the Marne at the eleventh hour and of the American government that over-night converted civilians into soldiers with the rapidity of a drama.

Tell it to the Kaiser. The fallen lord of the house of Hohenzollern shudders at the thought of American prowess as he saws wood in the forest of Amerongen. He does not agree with young Roosevelt. The iron jaw of von Hindenburg will relax in laughter as he reads the sophomoric declamation of the Republican partisan. Von Ludendorff, who felt the steel of the American sword thrust, will marvel at the prejudice that denies merit to the power of American arms. While the Rooseveltian outburst may be pleasing to those who place party advantage above their nation's honor, it will not be indorsed by any foe who ever met an American in the iron grip of war.

WOMEN FOR THE LEAGUE

Mrs. Frank A. Vanderlip, chairman of the New York League of Women Voters and a Republican, has announced that she will support Governor Cox on the League of Nations issue.

This is an indication of the attitude in general of the women of the country. Recent polls in various localities show that among representative women the league is favored by a ratio of almost three to one.

This attitude on the part of the mothers, wives and sweethearts, who know what war means, and who appreciate the benefits of peace, is perfectly natural. They favor "going in" the league with thirty-nine other nations in order that the world may stand united against the "outlaws" in the prevention of future wars.

The women know that without the League of Nations this country was forced into the most destructive war of history, and they pin their faith to the only instrumentality that gives assurance of future peace—the existing League of Nations.

THE APPEAL TO PREJUDICE

Up to now Senator Harding has not given the people a single reason why they should vote for him. His only appeal is to prejudice and passion. He knows that his organization in the past two years has spent millions of dollars inflaming racial groups, stirring up antagonism to the president, and spreading broadcast misrepresentation and falsehood. He thinks that it is only necessary to sit still and play on the key of prejudice to win the presidency.

The New York Sun and Herald proclaim in a front page article that nearly every foreign-born group in America is for Harding. That, indeed, is a proud boast for a candidate who claims to be the possessor of a super-Americanism.

Harding advocates "Government by Party." The inference is that he means government by the party, of the party and for the party.

"The people have no right to think; we will do their thinking for them." This is a literal interpretation of the meaning of the Republican Text Book.

Senator Harding says he is like McKinley. General Wood claimed to be like Roosevelt, and the suggestive thing is that both McKinley and Roosevelt are dead.

State Press Comment

Greenville (S. C.) Piedmont: The democrats intend to open the White House with a Jimmy.

Miami Daily News: Remember when skirts were so long they swept the sidewalks?

Norman Transcript: Love, like liquor, may make a man act foolishly, but it does not prompt him to break up the furniture.

Vinita Daily Journal: Tulsa admits that she is wicked and has sent for Billie Sunday for a series of meetings in October and November.

Oklahoma Federationist: A news item maintains that the cost of producing a diamond is only about $30 per karat. Many a fellow has produced one from his vest pocket only to find that the ultimate cost bears no relation to this figure.

Enfauila Indian Journal: When a motion was made in the senate to table the amendment providing for compulsory military training, Senator Harding voted against the amendment. If you are in favor of compulsory military training, vote for Harding.

Muskogee Times-Democrat: Some one asks how people will be able to travel on the crowded roads when everyone in the country has an automobile? Oh, well, 'bout half of 'em will be laid up at any one time as a result of smashups, so what's the use of worrying?

Henryetta Standard: Luther Harrison, the brilliant political writer, has taken charge of the publicity work for the state democratic organization and is writing some of his matchless campaign matter. During the recent primary campaign Mr. Harrison's scratching editorials against Gore were perhaps the most widely read in Oklahoma.

Oklahoman. Former President Taft is considering taking the stump in an effort to prove that Senator Harding will favor ratification of the treaty of Versailles if he is elected president. Senator Hiram Johnson is trying to prove that Harding will entirely reject the treaty if Harding is elected. Harding, himself, has said he will do both.

Normal Notes

Homer Miller, who was one of the janitors last year, is back and will have charge of the building.

The Y. W. C. A. will hold an important meeting this afternoon. Some important business matters pertaining to the work for the coming year will be the main feature of the meeting.

Miss Jones is conducting a class in physical training for women not enrolled in the Normal. The first meeting of the class was held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock and a large number of women were present. From present indications the class will be a success and a large number of people will be benefited by it.

Beginning this evening R. R. Robinson will conduct a class in education for teachers not directly connected with the Normal. The class will begin at 4 o'clock and will be held every Monday and Wednesday in the new education building. All persons interested in this class should phone Mr. Robinson today or as soon as possible.

The students met in the auditorium this morning to hold a "pop" meeting and to make arrangements for the entertainment of Gov. J. B. A. Robertson, who will visit the Normal tomorrow and deliver an address. A yell leader was elected and much enthusiasm was shown. From the way in which the students did things this morning, Governor Robertson will be given a good reception tomorrow.

Dr. F. S. Holden of the International Harvester company, and his four assistants, will conduct a class in agriculture one week, beginning next Wednesday. Besides the students already enrolled in the Normal there will be about one hundred others from over the district to take the work. From present indications there will be a large attendance and much interest in being shown in the movement.

Gov. J. B. A. Robertson will visit the Normal tomorrow and deliver an address to the students and faculty members and to all other visitors who care to come out. He will be at the Normal in the afternoon and deliver his address at 2 o'clock. A short program will be rendered by the Normal students, after which the governor will speak. His address will be non-political, but it will be along educational lines and subjects that interest the people in general. Everybody is invited to come out and be with the Normal in its first reception of the chief executive of the state.

All classes will meet tomorrow and organize. Sponsors for the coming year will be chosen and a class officers will be elected. The juniors will meet in the auditorium; the senior-boys will meet in room 305; the junior-boys will meet in room 212; the soph-boys will meet in room 301; the freshmen will meet in room 311; the graduate class will select the place for their meeting tomorrow. This is an important feature of the year and all students are asked to be present and take part in the organization of the classes.

The normal exhibits to be at the fair are being prepared and will be ready to be sent off in a day or so. Some of the best exhibits are the autograph of all men of importance in foreign countries. Pictures of great men from England, France, Belgium, Rumania, America and Germany have been secured and are being mounted. The normal booth at the fair will be one of the most interesting features and pains are being taken to make it worthy of the school. Dr. MacMillan will have charge of the booth and will be at the fair most, if not all, the time.

Special Trains Will Be Run.
A special train will be run on the Katy through Ada during the state fair. The fair will be one of the best in the history of the state and it was thought that it would be better for the people to run a special train during the time it is to take place. The train will leave Aftoka every day at 4 a. m., and will arrive in Ada at 6:12 a. m. This will allow the train to arrive in the city about 10 o'clock. The same train will serve Oklahoma City for the return trip at $8.30. Therefore anybody planning on going to the fair will be able to spend about ten hours in the city and will not have to be away from their work longer than one day. Better connections can be made and better service will be the results.

Special round trip tickets will be sold at reduced prices. The company will have extra cars and this will relieve crowded conditions. The special train will make its first trip on October 1, and will continue until October 8.

First Football Game.
Football season in Ada will open next Wednesday when the Normal and High school teams meet in their initial game. This game will not be just a tryout but will be played to the finish. Both teams are in high spirits and are bent on winning the game for their respective schools.

The game will be held on the normal grounds and work is being started to have the grounds in the best shape for the game. Much enthusiasm is being shown at both the high school and normal, and from present conditions both teams will have good support from the boosters. The normal is confident of victory but the high school may put one over on them. The only way to find out is to come out next Wednesday and see for yourself.

This game will not only furnish amusement for sport lovers but it will give the fans an opportunity to learn what each school has to put up in the following games of the season.

Big Land Deal Closed.
J. A. Cowling closed the deal this week wherein he has sold his Clear Boggy bottom farm known as the Richland Duroc farm, to L. T. Daniel of Wynnewood, Okla. This farm is located 1-2 mile south of Frisco, Okla., and consists of 213 acres. The price was $30,000. Mr. Daniel comes to this county highly recommended and Pontotoc county is lucky in getting such men. Mr. Daniel will devote this fine farm to hogs and alfalfa.

YOUR POCKETS? WHAT'S IN 'EM? OR DO YOU KNOW?

What do you carry in your pockets?

That is, if you're a man?

A man arrested for trying to avoid work was taken to the police station and found to have "everything" excepting money in his pockets.

And toothpicks.
It's an almost unheard of proposition to find a toothpick in a man's pockets these days.

Tailors and clothing dealers of Ada interviewed by a News reporter this week, say men are carrying more articles in their pockets now than ever before.

When a man's trousers reach the cleaner's they may contain anything from an automobile key to a diamond ring or two. Men are getting more careless, they say.

The main article carried by men these days is tobacco.
"Out of 50 suits of clothing brought in here today for cleaning, 45 had tobacco in them," a cleaner said.

"It's usually 'tailor-made' cigarettes though pipe smokers are increasing in number and cans of tobacco are frequently found."

The reason for men using their pockets as small trucks in which to carry "everything under the sun" is they're not taking any chances with the modern wife, who has ceased to consider as sacred the pockets of her husband, according to one man.

"Be prepared."
"Do a good turn daily."

New York Cotton.
Oct. closed 27.80; Dec. closed 25.33; March closed 22.62.

Cotton is coming in faster every day and the number of bales grow larger with each bale. The number of bales ginned up to 4 o'clock yesterday totaled 492. Three hundred sixty-five bales had been weighed at the yards.

At the corner of Main and Broadway this morning about 9 o'clock a night familiar to the old timers could be seen. The street was all most blocked without wagons with cotton. The farmers were selling it as fast as the buyers would bid. This makes things look like old times when the streets were crowded with farmers with their cotton.

"What do you mean?" he snorted. "Porous plaster, indeed. I want the very best you've got."—Pittsburg Chronicle Telegram.

IN REGARD TO PUBLIC LANDS FOR EX-SOLDIERS

There have been so many reports and inquiries regarding public lands in various states for ex-service men, Mrs. Orville Snead has been trying for some time to get first hand information, and some time ago wrote to the secretary of the state land department of several states asking for maps showing locations and giving descriptions of available lands.

She is just in receipt of a letter from the secretary of the state land department of Phoenix, Ariz., also the secretary of the soldiers' settlement committee of that state, which is published below for the benefit of those who might be interested in lands in Arizona.

"Mrs. Orville Snead, 'Secretary Red Cross, 'Ada, Oklahoma.

"Dear Madam:

"Replying to your inquiry of September 8, 1920, I regret to say that we have no maps of the public lands of this state, such as you desire for the use of ex-service men from which they might make a selection or filing.

"As a matter of fact, no land has been set apart by the Interior Department in our state for ex-service men. Many attempts have been made by our state authorities to bring about some plan of segregation of the public lands, but as yet nothing has come from it. However, if you have any ex-service men down there who would care to register in Arizona for a land selection in the future, we would be very glad to have them do so and enclose a few registration blanks for that purpose. A registration of this kind places no obligation upon the registrant and some time something material may come from it.

"Yours very truly,

"ALFRED C. SKEBETH,

"Secretary."

Mrs. Snead will give the public the benefit of any information she receives and will be glad to assist the ex-service men and their dependents in any way possible.

BIGGEST, BEST STATE FAIR IN SEPTEMBER

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 22.—Without doubt the biggest and most interesting state fair ever held in Oklahoma will begin when the gates are opened here at 8 o'clock on October 25 for the fourteenth annual Oklahoma state fair and exposition.

Many things combine to make the 1920 state fair the "best ever." One feature which is expected to attract large crowds from all parts of Oklahoma is the appearance on Friday, October 1, of Governor Cox, democratic candidate for president, who will deliver his main Oklahoma address in the auditorium on the state fair grounds.

Automobile racing by the fastest dirt track drivers in America will cause record attendance on Saturday, September 25, Wednesday, September 29 and Saturday, October 2, and the Oklahoma Derby, the classic horse race of the state, will have its followers on Thursday, September 30. There will be four days of running races—September 27, 28, 30 and October 1.

More than 30 shows will occupy the Midway all week and "Big Time" vaudeville will be shown afternoon and night in front of the grandstand. Every night beginning September 27, will be seen the performance of "The Siege of the Dardanelles," a gigantic fireworks spectacle.

Then there will be more than a score of buildings filled with agricultural, livestock, mineral and other exhibits, any one of which will be worth the price of admission.

And, speaking of admission, the state fair is only charging 50 cents this year—the same old price. And there is no war tax on admissions.

All types of Jaguars will attack man.

A hornet's nest holds about 200 insects.

The kingfisher lines its nest with fish bones.

The Half Colm

I am busied but not hurried. I am puzzled but not worried. I am finding happiness in the struggle with its stress.

Boy Philosophy. There would be more justice in this world if boys could do what they want to, to folks they no is mean and trifling.

Obsolete Sayings. "We are going to the fair in a bran new surry." "Did you carry a torch in the procession at the big rally?"

St Simple Suggests. There never was anything but a popular government, what the great body of people want they get. If they have a tyrant it is because they are too well satisfied with him to shake him off.

Ground Corn. The path that leads down hill leads up to. I think so never does, and maybe never will.

Many men can take things as they come who howl when they begin to go.

We can't help how we found the world, but Lord help us if we don't help it now.

There are good books, and there are books that folks really like to read.

Opportunity knocks on the doors of some and on the heads of others. Everybody carries a box of pills and wants you to take one as a means of curing the world.

Every man's ideal community is one in which he can be recognized as the greatest man in it.

How Many Are You? We have lost much in discarding the old form of speech. Not only does "you" lose solemnity as compared with "thou" and "thee", but it is also indirect and indefinite. But "thou" touches the individual. Suppose the Bible had said, "You shall not steal"—couldn't we have preached terrible sermons to other for the text, while at the same time holding it as an umbrella over ourselves?

MORE ROYAL HEADS PUT INTO DISCARD

And still the crowned heads tumble. Twelve more have gone into the discard and forty subjects in their pastboard kingdom have joined the march of democracy. But the "royal flush," that tradition of poker, great indoor American sport, is no more.

In the new playing cards the King, Queen and Jack are missing.

Instead, publishers say, an American doughboy replaces the King, a Red Cross nurse the Queen, and a "gob" the Jack. The Ace, of course will be an aviator.

Salamanders are absolutely harmless.

Texas Lady Suffered With Pulling and Aching Pains in Her Back, Which Cardui Relieved.

Houston, Texas.—Mrs. C. D. Cook, of 1912 Whitty Street, this city, recently said: "About four months after my marriage, I began suffering much pain, and knew that my condition was unusual, but couldn't just decide what was wrong. I had to go to bed. . . .

"All across my back and hips were pains, pulling and aching until I could hardly sit up. I stayed in bed a few days. My husband had heard of Cardui . . . so I told him he might get it. "After I had taken Cardui a few days, I was up. I took five bottles and haven't been in bed since for this trouble, for if I have the least symptoms of this trouble I get Cardui and take it in time.

"I have a number of friends who have used Cardui, and they recommend it very highly."

The experience of this Texas lady is similar to that related by thousands of other women. Cardui is purely vegetable, and mild and gentle in its action. Cardui may be the very medicine you need if suffering with womanly troubles. Take Cardui. NC-136

JAPAN TO SPEND VAST SUMS FOR NEW WARSHIPS

TOKIO, July 10.—The Japanese government has decided to ask for an appropriation of approximately $22,199,499, to be expended in the construction of new war ships and other naval requirements for the current fiscal year as part of the national defense. The plan is based on the completion of the eight battleship and eight cruiser unit.

The whole naval repletion program is to be completed by the end of 1927 the total expenditure being fixed at over $45,000,000, spread over ten consecutive years. Of that sum over $375,000,000 is intended for the construction of four battleships, four battle cruisers, 12 cruisers, 37 destroyers and a number of other war craft.

The original sum of this year's outlay was fixed at $33,199,499 in the navy budget estimate but owing to insufficient financial source, that amount has been cut down by about $11,000,000.

The outlay for the army involved in the national defense completion plan has been also curtailed to the extent of about $5,000,000 the expenditure for the present fiscal year being fixed at approximately $11,800,000. The expenditure required for the execution of the national defense completion plan for the army is fixed at about $212,500,000 which is spread over 10 consecutive years commencing the present year.

The appropriations both for the army and navy to be introduced in the coming session of the Imperial Diet.

FOR CONGRESS Ex-Judge ROBERT WHEELER of Tecumseh

I am a Democratic candidate for Congress from the Fourth district, subject to the August 3, primary. I am for the time honored principles of personal rights and personal liberty that the Democratic party always stood for and championed until a part of it, under the excitement and tension of the great war, was carried away by men whose only purpose was to disrupt and divide the party.

I have never used liquor as a beverage, but believe it to be a valuable medicine, and if I am elected to congress I will do all in my power to have Congress enact liberal laws that will permit citizens to procure liquor for medicinal purposes without unnecessary red tape or vexatious restrictions; leaving each to be sole judge of his needs and requirements for the preservation of the health of himself and family. The 18th amendment has eliminated the saloon, so that its return is no longer a possible factor or a question. But we ought not to return to the New England blue laws, or permit further encroachments on our remaining liberties. In this boasted free country it is no longer a question of liquor, but a question of personal rights and American manhood.

I am also in favor of liberal laws that will encourage the full development of the oil, mineral and manufacturing industries of the state, and enable the railroads to develop so as to be able to perform the services required of them; with fair wages and fair treatment for employees in every industry. But I am unalterably against profiteering, extravagance, graft, a large standing army, compulsory military training and political cowardice.

If the above meets with your approval, I will highly value and appreciate your support and influence.

Yours very truly,
Political adv ROBERT WHEELER.

from Kentucky; Charles D. Hilles, national committeeman from New York, and Harry M. Daugherty, the manager of Harding's pre-convention campaign. All these men are members of the executive committee selected to manage the Harding presidential campaign.

SHELL SHOCKED WAR VETERANS NOW FARMING

By the Associated Press

NEW YORK, July 9.—A number of modest little farms operated by veterans of the world war who have recovered from shell shock, gas or wounds, now dot the states of New Jersey, Connecticut and New York. The owners of these farms, most of them graduates of the New York State School of Agriculture at Farmingdale, L. I., have been "rehabilitated" and are now making good as food producers with the same enthusiasm that took them "over the top" in France.

The transformation of most of these former soldiers who selected farming from among the subjects offered by the federal board for vocational training in many cases has been a complete metamorphosis of railroad brakemen, plumbers, policemen, mechanics and laborers. One recent graduate of the school was a bartender before the war and today he owns a thoroughly up-to-date place near Toms River, N. J.

According to A. A. Johnson, director of the school, there were 76 federal board men enrolled in June and a number of these have since graduated. Director Johnson was lavish in his praise of what the soldier farmers were accomplishing, declaring that not only were they doing their full share in the economic program of their country, but "in a good many cases, considerably more than others less handicapped by wounds." He said they were about equally divided as farm tractor mechanics, general farmers, poultry raisers and hog breeders.

Archie A. Stone, former member of the Minnesota legislature, who is in charge of the work for the government, and has studied the results of the farm vocational training plan, said that it is producing results of a definite and permanent character. The students may have both theory and practice at Farmingdale 365 days in the year.

Michael Leddy, who lost an arm at Chateau-Thierry, is specializing in tractor work and with one hand and a steel hook, drives as straight a furrow, it is said, as any two-handed farm boy.

A year ago Charles Kujdoski, another crippled soldier, had never even ridden in a motor car. Recently, according to Director Johnson, he repaired a cracked cylinder in a heavy farm tractor at a saving of nearly $200 to the school.

Other soldier graduates of Farmingdale who are operating farms are Harry F. Cruise at Holbrook, L. I., Edison Smith, New Canaan, Corn.; Elmer E. Sturtz, Wellersburg, Pa.; Austin A. Sullivan, Ronkonoma, L. I., and a number of others within 50 miles of New York.

Love, like any other comedy, is staged in three acts. In the first, the man makes a fool of himself; in the second, the woman makes a fool of herself; and in the third, one of them makes a fool of the other.

Almost any straight path of devotion will lead to a woman's heart. It's this wobbling from hope to cold fear, and from adoration to self-preservation that makes the way so long and dangerous for the average man.

DEMPSEY STARTS ON GOLDEN TRAIL

Will Meet Them All in Tex Rickard's New Sport Temple.

By Dean Snyder.
BENTON HARBOR, Mich.—Jack Dempsey is all set to sock himself into a fortune now. When he knocked Billy Mike kicking in the third round of their championship fight here Labor Day he proved both to himself and the public that a boxer fights better as a champion than a contender.

Dempsey still retains the old confidence he had when he was bumping the heavyweight would-be contenders into has-been mediocres.

His old sock is there in either hand just as it was when he obliterated Jess Willard 14 months ago at Toledo. The tiger disposition which used to come over him in the ring burns as fiercely as ever.

New York Move.
Immediately after Referee Jim Dougherty counted ten over Mike's limp and unconscious body, the Dempsey camp was broken up for the next move. That move is New York, where "Tex" Rickard has the monopoly on the biggest sport temple in the world in the biggest city in the world, where money is spent freer than any place in the world.

If Dempsey fights as often as he wants to and as often as Kearns plans within the next year he will hang up a new record for purses. Cold-bloodedly speaking, Dempsey Kearns needs the money. They have nothing in the treasure chest at present except the Benton Harbor purse which will run well over $50,000 for the champion's share.

Dempsey wants to meet them all. He is confident that his socker is in first class condition and all the heavies that have been clamoring for a scuffle can get same by speaking up now.

Whether they will prove as much of a set-up as did Mike remains to be seen. Mike was not set-up before the Labor Day fight started, but he was a short time after the hand-shaking.

Brennan Next.
Knockout Bill Brennan is next in line for a show against Dempsey. Tex Rickard has the ace card in his possession to pull it off.

Georges Carpentier is on American shores. What effect his re-appearance in this country will have on Dempsey's future will soon be boiled down to cold turkey.

Kearns and Dempsey plus Tex Rickard will meet the Frenchman at the gang plank. Whether Carpentier will ever fight Levinsky hangs in the balance of the bargain struck with Rickard and Kearns then. Manager Deschamps has set an example of living up to contracts. He signs with all of them but winds up by breaking any or all of them.

Field Ahead.
Let's see who's on deck for Dempsey in this busy year he has mapped out. There's Fred Fulton, the fellow who quits when he's hurt. Everybody beats Frank Moran. Willie Meahan is too fat. Battling Levinsky couldn't stay with the bearcat mauler before he won the title. Gene Tunney and Bob Martin aren't ripe yet. Gunboat Smith hasn't the measurements.

Carpentier is a great boxer. His manager has a hypnotic eye. He has plenty of confidence with everyone except with Dempsey. Would Dempsey shove in a "heart sock"

Professor Is Ready For Shot At Man In Moon With Rockets

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 22.—Prof. Robert H. Goddard, who a few months ago attracted wide attention by declaring his belief that a rocket capable of soaring from the earth to the moon was feasible, announced tonight that a working model of such a projectile would be given a test within a month's time.

The basic principle of his invention provides for the detonation of successive charges of explosives within the rocket thus renewing its momentum at regular intervals. In his statement tonight Professor Goddard said:

"No attempt is being made to obtain a great altitude, to make the proportion of powder large, or to construct a large apparatus, for the simple reason that the funds available from the Smithsonian Institution will permit the completion of only a small model of about six pounds weight, with a capacity of about sixty charges."

and follow it with a short cross to the jaw like he did with Mike? That's how you'd have to dope it now.

Two Blacks.
That leaves Harry Wills and Jack Johnson, the dusky pair. Wills, like Fulton, quits when he is hurt. Dempsey never fought anyone whom he didn't hurt.

Johnson is in jail. The dope has it that he will be out inside of a year. When Johnson met Jim Jeffries at Reno there was no man in the world that could have stayed with him.

Jack Johnson.
They say that the big smoke hasn't taken care of himself. Well, you'll note that he's been fighting bulls in Spain and Mexico. He's boxing in jail now. The colored boxer has a longer life than the whites. So Jack Johnson may yet prove to be the strongest contender Dempsey will have.

WALT MASON

The Great Philosopher's Daily Rhyme.

Feet of Clay.

At times some saintly writer has made a hit with me, some sane and forceful fighter against iniquity. Without too much of preaching, great truths his books expound, the that should be reaching this weary world around. And every time I read him, I think, "His life's a poem! The soul sick people need him, to bring their sunshine home!" And I assume he's living like those of whom he writes, no thought or longing giving to lurid days and nights. Then comes some sickly scandal, some drama rank and coarse, in which that saintly vandal's screeching for divorce. And thus some actress winning is shrined in all our hearts: she seems remote from sinning and all the sordid arts. The moving films unfold her in strictly moral shows; whenever we behold her, our admiration grows. We christen her "Our Lizzie" and praise her till we're hoarse—and then she knocks us dizzy by asking a divorce. A lot of old wedges still look on wedding rings and solemn marriage pledges as being sacred things. And now we find them trine, these gifted girls and men; they had us once admiring, but never will again.

At the Ada Playhouses

At the McSwain.
"The Spirit of Elkdom" which is to be shown here at the McSwain on Thursday in connection with the 5-reel picture entitled "The Way Back," shows some of the interesting war activities not only of the Elks, but other patriotic organizations such as the Red Cross, the Knights of Columbus, the Salvation Army and the Y. M. C. A. One of the most interesting scenes is that of the McIntyre sisters of Salvation Army fame, making doughnuts in the trenches for the soldier boys.

Gladys Rockwell.
"Rose of Nome," a drama of love and gold in the great Northwest, in which William Fox presents Gladys Rockwell, will begin an engagement at the American Theater today.

As with other stories by Barbara Le Mar Deely, this play is said to be filled with intensely dramatic situations that have been brought out with compelling force by Edward J. Le Saint, the director. There are scenes in the forest primitive, in the great snow-covered wastes, in the Alaska gambling dens and dance halls.

Miss Brockwell is surrounded with a strong cast including William Scott, Herbert Prior, Gertrude Ryan, Edward Peel, Stanton Heck, Frank Thorne, Lule Warrenton and George Woodthorpe. Paul Schofield wrote the scenario.

At the American.
Have you ever pictured in your mind's eye a perfect motion picture, perfect in theme, plot, story, action, suspense and love element? Have you ever tried to visualize a photo drama so entrancing, so gripping and so highly entertaining as to make you walk miles if necessary to see it?

Seek no further. It is here in "For the Soul of Rafael," in which Clara Kimball Young does the finest work of her long career in pictures.

Here is the sum total of perfection of photo dramatic triumphs. Here is the picture moulded by a master hand from a story by a master mind, an entrancing assembly of every element that makes for supreme entertainment.

We simply can't tell you the story. It's too splendid to tell in cold type. If you've read "For the Soul of Rafael," you know in what wondrous colors this tale is told.

how alluring, how golden and beautiful must be the scenes of these days of yesterday when knights were bold and ladies were enrapturing. This is the one production of the season you must not miss. Brought here at great expense. Showing will begin on Thursday at the American Theater.

POLICY OF T. R. SUITS HARDING

He Is In Favor of Roosevelt's Policy of Developing West.

MARION, Ohio.—The Roosevelt policy of conservation to develop the west and insure an adequate food supply was advocated by Senator Harding in a recent speech.

He also suggested many soldiers might be provided homes in the undeveloped western country and declared the duties of reclamation and development rest both on federal and state authorities and on public as well as private financing.

Drawing an analogy between present conditions and those following the Civil war, the nominee declared his conviction that many former soldiers would be glad to help open the unsettled regions of the west as a reward for their services to their country. He asserted that peril to the nation would result unless there was a greater development of agriculture in comparison to the growth of the city population.

Opposes Profligacy.
"It was against profligacy," he said, "that Roosevelt raised his voice and exercised the veto power. He started the great reclamation movement. What Roosevelt did for his time we must carry forward into the future."

Senator Harding also declared that in its conservation policy the government must guard against private monopoly, but said he had "no particular preference" between the employment of private capital and public funds to attain the highest productivity of natural resources. He asserted that the country needed a resumption of the inauguration of the republican conservation program inaugurated by Roosevelt, and "neglected since 1913."

THE WORLD'S BIGGEST JOB—AND ITS SCOPE

Every year the Presidency of the United States grows more important, until now it is recognized as the biggest job in the world. Yet few people realize that the president is not chosen by a majority vote and that several of our presidents have not been the most popular choice of all the people. This fact is clearly discussed in the story of the Presidency, one of the series of articles on Our Government, which we are issuing monthly.

If you are not receiving this material, drop in and let us add your name to the list of those to whom we are sending it each month.
